Winner—B. g. by Herald—Eileena.
Went to post at 3:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. King Herald beat the gate and handled his weight well. He was well in hand almost throughout, but was driving right at the end to stall off Moabina. The latter got away poorly, but closed a big gap and although swerving under the whip finished strongly. The Maniac closed up fast at the end and is greatly improved and should win a similar race at an early date. Sir Claud succumbed to his weight because of essaying to race with the winner. Meteo went moderately well. Knockings got off poorly and did not relish the big weight.

Scratched—30171 Baltest, 114.

King Herald, show, 1 to 2. Moabina, show, 1 to 2. The Maniac, show, 6 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by Altamex—Tallada.
Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Thaddeus and Hudson beat the gate and the race was confined to the two throughout. Better seasoning told and the winner drew out right at the end. Hudson showed a tremendous flight of speed and stayed well. He is a fine looker. Venecia is a quick breaker, ran a fast race and easily held third place. Clarinette is a consistent performer. Prince Eugene made up ground in the stretch. Past Master had scant chance at the start and is steadily improving. Honiton, off badly, was very sore in her preliminary and was easing up in the last eighth when defeat was certain. The Forum is a grand looker, but had no chance at the start.

Thaddeus, show, 1 to 5. Hudson, show, 2 to 1. Venecia, show, 2 to 1. Honiton, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Riley—Maggie B.
Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Einstein improved suddenly, was easily best today, showed the most speed throughout and won going away. Rush Fields broke slowly but improved his position from the start and finished strongly. Katherine Ennis sustained her speed longer than usual but was fortunate at the start. Bob Palmer got off badly and was used up in making up his loss at the start. Lost Girl sulked. Torsina ran badly.

Scratched—29863 El Rey, 106.

Winner—Br. g. by Reggie—Virginia Dare.
Went to post at 3:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. San Nicholas broke well, set a terrific pace, held the field safe decisively at all stages and is close to being a high class horse. Fitzkanet, off well, saved ground wherever possible, was perfectly handled and ran a high class, game race. The Giver, off badly and carried wide on all turns, closed up with a tremendous stretch rush. It was a great performance. Sweet Tooth had no mishaps, but failed right at the end, being out-gamed by the second and third horses in a drive. Water Scratch, off slowly and knocked back on the backstretch, went around the entire field, but required a stronger ride in the stretch. Meehanus loomed up dangerously when a furlong out, but quit in the deciding drive.

Scratched—30103 Ordnung, 135; 30160 Josie G., 128; (30144) Sea Queen, 118; 30101 Sea Lion, 110.

Winner—B. g. by Racine—Pottery.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Position trailed to the far turn, where he commenced to move up with an electric burst of speed, mowed down the field in the stretch and won going away. Rollick set a tremendous pace, which he sustained throughout and ran the race of his career. Vesuvian, well placed and perfectly handled, put up a fast and game race and evidently did his best. Water Cure was forced to go wide on all the turns, but simply was unable to handle and concede the weight. He is a different and much better horse with light weight up. Grater went well for six furlongs and is in good form. Rosormonde is not of much present account.

Scratched—30161 El Rio Shannon, 105; 30190 Fitzkanet, 95.

Winner—Ch. h. by Watercress—Judith.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Saul of Tarsus broke well but appeared to be beaten after being outrun to the stretch turn. He came again very gamely, however, and unexpectedly wore down Marshal Neil in a strong finish. The latter appeared to be a safe winner almost throughout but curled up unexpectedly right at the end. Herculean broke slowly and went wide, being inadequately handled by his small jockey but finished strongly. Afghan was outrun all the way. Alzura, off poorly, went well. Dan Collins closed up ground in the stretch run.

Scratched—29839 Gold Baron, 129.

WASHINGTON PARK STAKES.

Says the Spirit of the Times: "The summer meeting at Washington Park, Chicago, is the swell function of western racing, and horsemen should give due attention to the liberal program which can scarcely fail to bring together horses of high class, breeding and reputation from all points of the compass. Racing will be conducted under Western Jockey Club rules; the list is an unusually attractive one; the lavish generosity promised two years ago, fulfilled last year, is again demonstrated. In other words the big stakes retain all last year's large added moneys, while in some cases increases have been made; at the same time no purse is less than $600, and the overnight handicaps rate from $1,000 upward, showing that the smaller owners have by no means been neglected or left out in the cold." All of which is correctly and truly said.

Next Wednesday the stakes offered by this truly great racing organization will close for entries. That they will be liberally patronized every one knows, for Washington Park is the recognized corner stone of western racing, and the munificent endowment of its numerous stakes always suffices to attract the cream of each year's good horses. There will be no failure or falling off in this respect this year, and there are elements in view at present that seem to indicate that the American Derby of this year will be of the most absorbing interest. In California, for instance, the form of the best three-year-olds is much higher than in any year since, in 1892, Col. Harry Thornton and Thomas H. Williams brought about the establishment of racing on modern lines. From there alone may be expected such tried, high-class three-year-olds as Cruzados, Old England, Sombrero, Homestead and San Nicholas, all horses of remarkable speed, whereas last year California could not muster a single candidate deemed good enough to go to the post.

The terms of all the stakes offered by the star club of the west appear in this issue and DAILY RACING FORM will furnish entry blanks to all who may need them. Owners who have deferred making entries now have but little time to spare and should send in their nominations to Secretary Howard at once.

HARLEM'S STAKE OFFERINGS.

In this issue Secretary Nathanson presents the conditions of Harlem's liberally endowed list of stakes for the spring and summer meetings, with the promise that an additional list will be offered in July for the later summer and autumn meetings. The stakes now offered are substantially the same as those of last year, the only change of importance being that none has below $1,500 in added money. To the twelve stakes here proffered the handsome sum of $25,000 is added and Secretary Nathanson reasonably estimates that their net values will aggregate $44,650. In these stakes, supplemented by the forthcoming July list and in purses ranging from $500 to $1,000, the Harlem authorities expect to distribute over $200,000 among winning owners in their forty-three days of racing. The attention of owners is directed to the conditions of the fixtures displayed in DAILY RACING FORM's advertising columns, with the suggestion that it is best to make nominations quickly. Entry blanks can be had on application at this office by mail or personally.

Western Turf Most Successful Handicapper

TO PATRONS:—I have stopped issuing "SPECIALS" on my local NEW ORLEANS Handicap Sheet, at the request of my fellow JOCKEYS and HORSEMEN, who claim that it ruins their odds at the track here. By not SPECIFYING same on my local sheet, puts me in the very best position to get next to the good things that are being uncovered, and winning at long odds nearly every day of this meeting. The HORSEMEN here have absolutely no objection to me furnishing information on their horses, in cipher code, to my OUT OF TOWN PATRONS. I am at the track in person early each morning, hustling for this inside information, and I also have in my employ experienced men which I retain at a high salary, to time all the morning trials of the horses. Among the fast workouts that I am next to, is one of the best maidens here, who will win easily the first time out, at long odds. I also have on my list several horses belonging to the Texas contingent, which have been especially prepared at the old OAKLAND track, and when uncovered will kill the pool rooms throughout the country. To convince you of the merits of my information, I will mail to all weekly patrons, each morning trials and also the names in advance, of those I am waiting to be uncovered, to enable you to look them up to your own satisfaction. I will also wire them in cipher code the day of the race as they come off, before 11:30 a.m.

TERMS DURING JANUARY $5.00 WEEKLY. I WILL ONLY WIRE A COUPLE DURING THE WEEK OF GOOD ODDS.

EX-JOCKEY VIC BRITTON, P. O. BOX 692, NEW ORLEANS, LA.

 Went to post at 3:01. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Admetus was under a pull for the first mile, went through his field when his rider was ready and came away without being extended. Jackanapes made a wide turn when entering the stretch, but came fast again at the end. Beana made up ground in the stretch, but hung when Dangman called on her. Maple and Balloon retired when the final drive came. Dandy H. ran a fairly good race.

 Went to post at 3:42. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Blake kept Nellie Waddell going at her best all the way. She showed the speed and opened up a big gap in the first half, but was tiring at the end. Tayon finished strongly and was overhauling the winner at every stride. Fake was outrun in the first part of the race, but made up a lot of ground in the run home. His big weight told on Sevoy when it came to a drive and he hardly showed his usual speed. Kaloma, Pigeon Post and St. David finished stoutly.

Death is in great form, ran a fine race, came away from the others when Slack was ready and had considerable left at the end. Silver Coin closed a big gap, finished strongly and got second place in the final stride. Petit Maitre got caught in a jam at the first turn, but after making up his lost ground hung when it came to a drive. W. B. Gates was on the outside all the way and covered more ground than any other horse in the race. Jessie Jarboe ran well for six furlongs, but quit badly in the stretch run.

Lingo went around the leaders at the turn for home, was under a hard drive all through the last furlong and got up in the last stride. Ernest Parham ran a good race but was tiring at the finish. Leenja swerved across the track in the last fifty yards and was tiring fast. The Way came to the extreme outside at the stretch turn and lost a lot of ground.
